

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

2008 CITY OF SPOKANE ARTS AWARDS

The Spokane Arts Commission announces an open call of nominations for the 2008 City of Spokane Arts Awards. The Seventeenth Annual Arts Awards will be presented in six categories during a public meeting of Spokane City Council.

Individuals, organizations, and businesses are encouraged to nominate candidates for these awards. Just explain how your nominee meets the guidelines for the appropriate category. Nominations must be written, no phone calls accepted. Use the following guidelines to help us understand why your nominee deserves an Arts Award:

INDIVIDUAL ARTIST

(Visual, performing, literary, etc. all eligible)

- * Consistent quality of artistic work
- * Commitment to community - gives of self/of work
- * Visibility - sheds positive spotlight on Spokane artists
- * Serves as a role model for youth/other artists

ARTS ORGANIZATION

Consistent production of quality work

- * Works to improve artistic quality
- * Expands local horizons
- * Gives back to the community for the benefit of others
- * Presents innovative projects
- * Audience expansion/outreach
- * Sets and achieves goals

INDIVIDUAL BENEFACTOR

Consistently gives of time and/or money

- * Involvement has made a difference
- * Involvement results in involvement/support of others
- * Assumes leadership role

BUSINESS BENEFACTOR

Varied kinds of support

- * Consistent high level or recent increase in support
- * Consistent support to arts community at large
- * Encourages employees/members to participate in the arts
- * Demonstrated innovative or creative ways to support the arts

ARTS IN EDUCATION PROGRAM

For achievement in use of the arts in education

(Nominations for this award may include individuals, or programs within particular public, private schools, or school districts)

- * High level of commitment to students
- * High standards for academic excellence
- * Regularly & consistently inspires artistic advancement
- * Important influence in the lives of many students

ARTS COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

(Thankless Martyr Award)

- * Arts organizational staff or community volunteer other than a donor.
- * Significant & notable contributions of personal energy & self for the betterment of the Spokane arts community
- * Serves as catalyst for positive action in the arts community
- * Provides high degree of focus & commitment
- * Individual frequently the one who gets the job done, often behind the scenes
- * Exhibits strong principles & dedication to the concepts of strengthening, transforming & growing the arts in Spokane

Nominate as many individuals, businesses and organizations as you like! Use the form provided and attach additional information as needed. Please fill out form entirely and be thorough in your presentation.

Deadline for 2008 Arts Awards Nominations is August 29, 2008

Send nominations to:

Arts Awards, Spokane Arts Commission, 808 West Spokane Falls Blvd., Spokane, WA 99201
or email arts@spokanecity.org

2008 CITY OF SPOKANE ARTS AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

(visit us at www.spokanearts.org)

CATEGORY _____

Nominator's Name _____

Nominator's Address _____ Zip _____

Nominator's Phone # _____ Email _____

Nominee's Name/Business/Organization _____

Nominee's Address _____ Zip _____

Nominee's Phone # _____ Email _____

Using the criteria described on the front of this sheet, explain why your nominee deserves a City of Spokane Arts Award:
(use additional paper if necessary)

2008 CITY OF SPOKANE ARTS AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

(visit us at www.spokanearts.org)

CATEGORY _____

Nominator's Name _____

Nominator's Address _____ Zip _____

Nominator's Phone # _____ Email _____

Nominee's Name/Business/Organization _____

Nominee's Address _____ Zip _____

Nominee's Phone # _____ Email _____

Using the criteria described on the front of this sheet, explain why your nominee deserves a City of Spokane Arts Award:
(use additional paper if necessary)